

The mission of NCW Quilt Guild is to preserve and continue the traditions, culture and history of quilting;
To contribute to the knowledge of and to promote the appreciation of the art of quilt making;
to sponsor and support quilting activities by exhibitions, lectures and workshops offered to the general public; to encourage quilt making and collecting.

Dear Members,

It's time to think about electing our officers for 2020. In another few months, I'll be passing the "spool of thread" to Nancy Straub. Becky McFann will become Treasurer. We will need to elect a new Vice President, Vice-Treasurer and a Secretary. If you would like to nominate yourself or someone else for any of these positions, please contact me, Suzan Darling, (ronzdarling@gmail.com 425-453-0823) before October 18.

In addition to the Quilt Guild Executive Board officers, there are many committees that support our activities and make guild membership fun and worthwhile. According to the By-Laws we passed in April 2015, "No committee chairperson may serve in the same capacity for more than two consecutive years. In the event there is not a volunteer to replace a position, the President may appoint the current chairperson to continue." The following committees have been chaired by the same person(s) for at least 2 years, so we are asking you if you would be interested in being more involved in the guild by taking on one of these positions: bus trips, comfort quilts, historian, hospitality, librarian, parliamentarian and round robins.

Don't let our perennial volunteers burn themselves out. Contact me, Suzan Darling, (ronzdarling@gmail.com 425-453-0823) before the October meeting date (October 30) to volunteer for a committee position.

Perhaps you are not ready to be the chairperson, but would like to be involved as a member of a committee. If you have ever thought that the same people seem to be in charge of everything in the guild, this is your chance to step up and become involved.

Warm regards,
Suzan Darling

LIBRARY

Looking for a winter project? Check out the NCW Quilt Guild's library which is in a cabinet that has been moved to the classroom area of Sew Creative which is across the street from Lewis and Clark Elementary. As you go into the store, go toward the fabric and turn right. The classroom is straight ahead and the cabinet is to the left. To see what is available, go to: <http://www.librarything.com/> Log in as: Name: ncwquiltguild Password: fatquarter14 Choose the Your Books tab which will pull up the books in the library. You can browse through the titles or you can do a search using titles or authors. To Search: Type search terms into Search Your Library box. Click on Search you will get a list. Click on title to see details, summary, and reviews. You can also click books under Your Books to see all the books in the library. To check out a book, e-mail request to: paine.s@applecapital.net or call 663-4006. I will bring the book to the next meeting. Or you can go to Sew Creative. The books are arranged alphabetically by title in a cabinet there. If you find a book there and want to check it out, write your name, phone number, and the date on the card in the front of the book. Leave the card in the box on the bottom shelf. You can return the book to the cabinet or bring it to a monthly meeting and give it to Sharon Paine. If you find book you think might be a good addition, let Sharon know.

New Book: The library acquired three new books by Janet Nesbitt after her presentation in September. You might want to check out Crazy Favorite Things or Crazy Kind of Wonderful. They both have appliqué projects Crazy Kind of Wonderful contains both small projects, wall hangings, and quilts. . If you use one of the library books, share a short review or recommendation in the newsletter. You may also write a review or rate the book on the web site. To see what is available, go to: <http://www.librarything.com/>

2019 QUILT AND FIBER ART FESTIVAL WRAP-UP

Our mission as a nonprofit guild is “to preserve and continue the traditions, culture, and history of quilting; to contribute to the knowledge of and to promote the appreciation of the art of quilt making; to sponsor and support quilting activities by exhibitions, lectures, and workshops offered to the general public; to encourage quilt making and collecting.” I think that the Quilt and Fiber Art Festival met the mission! We came in under budget thanks to the dedicated efforts of many people.

Here are a few important numbers:

2019 Quilt Festival Expenses: $18,729.30 (as of 9/16/2019)

2019 Quilt Festival Income: $25,133.95

2019 Quilt Festival Profit: $ 6,404.65

Attendance: 826 (Friday- 480, Saturday- 346)

Total Admissions: $5,832

Artisan Market Income: $3877.50

Yardage and More Sale: $4197.45

Raffle Ticket Sales: $4060

Sponsors: $1847

Vendors/Merchants: $3365

Silent Auction Proceeds to Women’s Resource Center of NCW: $1320

Thank-you to all my wonderful committee chairs and co chairs and to all the energetic volunteers who made the 2019 festival a success!

Every festival requires many hands AND heads. Louise Brown will chair the 2020 festival and has openings for new people with fresh ideas. This is YOUR guild. Please step up and be part of her team.

COMFORT QUILTS

The comfort quilt committee would like to thank everyone that has so generously donated their time and fabric. So far this year we have donated 133 quilts. Although we have received many finished quilts this year we have a large number of quilts tops in storage. Quilt kits (top, backing and batting) are available at each meeting for your quilting pleasure..

Comfort Quilt needs:

Twin – at least 60” x 80” preferable 70” x 90”

Palliative Care - 40” x 60”

Wheel Chair – 40” x 40”

Casa – Christmas stocking and pillow cases

Chief for the day - Approximately 50” x 65”. Themes related to children ages 6-12

Louise Brown 663-1964, Doni Palmgren 662-7777 and Lynn Pittsinger 662-6715

The Quilt and Fiber Arts awards chair and co-chair wish to THANK all those who have so generously donated their time, talent and resources while creating the amazing variety and selection of awards pinned onto the various items. So many truly showed the respect we feel for your talent. 2020 is just around the corner, all these take time, so think about making one (or two...or three) during the dark, cold and long winter days ahead. We have plenty of the small ones, we would love to have more large ones...in the 5" to 6" size. All styles of blocks are welcome. Thanks again...Kari and Cassie Black.

Quilt show

Plans for the 2020 quilt show are underway. Linda Riesterer has volunteered to be will be my co-chair. We are pleased to announce Lesley Allan will be our featured Guest Artist. Many people have expressed interest in having the Bob Ross Cherrywood challenge for next year, unfortunately it has already been reserved for our date. We are looking into other fabric challenge possibilities.

Committee opportunities:

*Community Booth – Setup booth at quilt show with membership and comfort quilts information. Chair and Co-Chair

*Entry Hall Display.-. Collecting and hanging quilts at the show entry

*Hospitality Room – Co-Chair

*Raffle Ticket Sales – Handing out raffle tickets and collecting raffle money. Arrange for people to work at raffle sales table. Chair and Co-Chair

White Gloves – Arrange for people to assist at the quilt show Chair

Louise Brown

BUS TRIP

We will be taking a bus to the Spokane Quilt show on Saturday, October 19. This show typically has a huge vendor mall and lots of good shopping, in addition to the great quilts. The cost will be announced later and sign-ups will begin at the August meeting.

Thank you Note

I am the recent recipient of a comfort quilt, having lost my husband to an aorta dissection. truly love it and cherish it in memory of his three final days in hospice at Central Washington Hospital. I know the work that goes into these quilts and am grateful for mine. Thank you for your kind gift. Doris Parker
